

Nordic Co-Production & Film Financing Forum

Dear producers in Canada,

The 4th Nordic Co-Production and Film Financing Forum is taking place during the Norwegian International Film Festival in Haugesund, 20 – 23 August.

Nordic Co-Production Forum is an event targeting producers, investors, film funds and sales agents with a professional interest in co-productions. In this forth edition of the seminar there will be a focus on co-producing with Germany, Canada and the various Nordic countries. The forum is in general open for submissions for all countries. We are official partner of the Producers Network in Cannes.

Nordic Co-Production Forums goal is to support the producers of feature-length fiction film projects that contains a link to the Nordic regions. Qualifying features will be produced or co-produced by a country in this area or are films that contain story elements based in this region.

If your projects get selected we can offer:

- one day pitch workshop and training
- 7 minutes pitch in front of potential co-producers and funds
- project description in our catalogue
- personal schedule with individual meetings
- high profile film industry seminars
- accommodation for three nights (20 – 23 August)
- travel support

Project submission:
